UNREFINED

CARICATOS

is the first creation formed by Hugo Miro and Samuel Penhastro, two international artists endorsed by a long professional career separately.

A light-hearted, subtle and delicate show, focused on communication with the audience...

An impromptu duel between two endearing characters with the only weapons that their gestures give them.

A show based on the legacy of great clowns and silent film classics from Buster Keaton to Bill Irwin... transforming that essence through new artistic expressions...

50 minutes of absurd situations, visual effects and crazy moments dominated by the objects manipulation, pantomime and different circus techniques developed within the poetic framework of the Clown.
